"NOTICE"

UNITED STATES PROBATION DEPARTMENT
 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 FOR THE DISTRICT OF Virginia (Eastern)

RE: UNITED STATES -and- TAYRON TYREE WEEKS, Docket No.: 1:14-CR-00313-TSE

Dear Sir/Mam,

The purpose of this letter entitled "NOTICE" is due to the above mentioned subject matter, First, and foremost I would like to thank you in advance for your time and assistance, I will attempt to make this correspondence as brief and precise as possible;

Recently, I was made aware of the Federal Structure regarding the Statute's and Constitutional limitations that were implied within the above mentioned subject matter, therefore I Weeks Tayron here-in-after Petitioner, do declare and affirm I am above the age of 21, competent to state the following:

1. Petitioner in the year 2014 was arrested in Virginia State, for purported crimes in Virginia State, a State of the Union, which would of granted local State Police Original Jurisdiction of accused Body, as well as, Cognizance of purported offenses;
2. Petitioner in the year 2014 was charged in a Federal Indictment by Authorities federal docket entry 1:14-CR-00313-TSE in Virginia State, for purported crimes committed within Virginia State, a State of the Union, for matters that are local, and outside of Federal intervention, based on the Constitutional provisions established and geared towards the State's of the Union which are protected from Federal Legislation within the Constitution for the United States Article I section 8 clause 17;
3. Petitioner was prosecuted in the United States District Court of Virginia (Eastern), a Court found to be established pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C. Part 1, Chapter 5, Section(s) 87-131, which is authorized by Congress to handle civil matters within Title 28 U.S.C. Part 4, Chapter 85, section(s) 1330-1369, as Petitioner believe's section 1345 "United States as a Plaintiff" quoting "....shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions..";
4. Petitioner was prosecuted and sentenced pursuant to Title 18 of the United States Code, which Title 18 U.S.C. Part 1, Chapter 1, Section 23 "Court of the United States defined" only establishes Guam, Mariana Islands, and Virgin Islands within Title 18 U.S.C.;
5. Petitioner asserts for the record, that he was charged criminally utilizing Title 18 U.S.C., a Title which was established by Congress to handle matters in Guam, Mariana Islands, and Virgin Islands only, hence, such Title, Title 18 U.S.C. was utilized outside of Congressional Intent, thus rendering such pervasive manner of prosecution as fraud against his person;
6. Petitioner asserts for the record, that he was denied criminal due process of law, due to the above mentioned fact, that the United States District Court for the District of Virginia (Eastern) was only established as a Civil Court pursuant to Title 28 U.S.C., and not a Criminal Court established under Title 18 U.S.C. as explained above in lines 2,3,4,5;

7. Petitioner asserts for the record, based on above mentioned facts, deny's, rejects, objects, and request that his original not guilty plea be removed and/or stricken off the record, due to the fact that it was done without full disclosure, due to the facts recently made known;
8. Petitioner asserts for the record, based on the above mention facts, Rebutt's the Presumption of Detention Order of Docket entry 1:14-CR-00313-TSE pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. in specific but not limited to section(s) 3142, 3141, 3041; Federal Rules of Evidence 301; Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure Rule 1(b)(10);

I, Weeks, Tayna, do declare and affirm, that the above mentioned is true, correct, complete and not misleading to the best of my ability, under penalty of perjury, pursuant to United States Law, and Virginia State Law;
